School Mission and Goals

The mission of Black Mountain Elementary School (BMES) is to develop a collaborative nurturing community dedicated to creating an environment of respect and meaningful learning. The staff believes that each child is unique, can be a successful learner, needs a sense of respect for self and others, that high standards and expectations result in quality performance and that quality education requires the collaborative effort of educators, parents, students and the community.

On Campus Incidents 0

There have been no incidents so far this school year that would require law enforcement intervention. Our school Safety Committee reviews campus safety on a quarterly basis. Our Crisis Team conducts an annual review of plans should we ever be faced with a crisis. We conduct monthly fire drills and quarterly practice lock downs. Our school uses the Love and Logic behavior program to teach respect and responsibility between students, staff, parents and community.
